1. [redacted] called in connection with a contact, [redacted] who in 1961 offered some ideas relating to an automatic [redacted] device for [redacted]. With the current activities in this field, he seems to feel he should get some credit and has indicated he is taking his problem up with Senator Dirksen. [redacted] was merely alerting us to this indicating they plan to send an appropriate response to his latest query.

2. [redacted] At his request, I stopped by to see Sam Scott, Assistant Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. He requested advice as to the possible availability in the near future of one [redacted]. I advised that his request on behalf of the Subcommittee early in the fall had been noted and that at such time as the individual might be available we would advise. In any event, I would check to insure that the Subcommittee's request had not been overlooked.

Mr. Scott also requested information concerning U. S. supply and parts shipments to Yugoslavia. I advised that these were matters completely outside our ken and that he should look to State Department and the AID people. He thanked me for stopping by.

3. [redacted] Met with Bob Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and inquired as to whether any further information was available concerning the tentative date of 4 February for the Director's appearance before the Subcommittee. I also requested that we be advised concerning such specific items as Mr. Mahon may desire covered in our briefing. Mr. Michaels advised that he had no further information on the date and that he would meet with Mr. Mahon as soon as possible and discuss the matter of topics with him.
